1. Vacant Scholarships at Teacher's College, Columbia University, For Daughters of Naval Officers. There are at present two vacant scholarships at Teacher's College, Columbia University, available for daughters of Commissioned Officers of the Navy and Marine Corps. One of these scholarships pays full tuition and partial maintenance and the other pays full tuition. The qualifications to obtain these scholarships require that the applicant be able to enter the Junior Year of the course at Teacher's College. The course is practically a postgraduate course. The necessary expenses of the college year exclusive of tuition should be $500 to $600. With partial maintenance provided the cost will be materially less.

Applicants who are qualified to accept these scholarships are encouraged to make application to the Bureau, and take advantage of them as soon as possible.

2. Postgraduate Instruction. The following named officers have been selected for postgraduate instruction for classes to be ordered in 1928:

BUREAU OF NAVIGATION NEWS BULLETIN #84.

The Bureau requests that this Bulletin be given free circulation among officers and that items of interest be published to the Enlisted Personnel. This Bulletin is not confidential and may be destroyed at the discretion of the commanding officers. Constructive suggestions for improvement will be appreciated.

INDEX OF SUBJECTS.

1. Training Courses.
2. Navy Relief Gives Aid to S-4 Dependents.
3. Survey Reports of Missing Articles of Equipage.
4. Officers selected for General Line Course.
5. Enlisted Men Completing Course of Instruction Required to Return to Ships from which received.
6. Motion Pictures.

1. Training Courses. The new training courses listed below have been received from the printer and are ready for distribution:

Chief Signalman
Coxswain
Radioman lc.

Training courses for Seaman, and Signalman 2c will be ready for issue in about four weeks.

The rating course for Radioman lc contains such new subjects as compass variation, compass calibration, naval tube transmitters, low and intermediate frequency receivers, portable field equipment, and radio compass. This course also contains information on general subjects of particular value to radiomen of higher ratings such as elementary mechanics and measurements, plans, blueprints, sketches, and working drawings.

2. Navy Relief Gives Aid to S-4 Dependents. The Navy Relief Society requests the following be published in ships' papers and projected on motion picture screen by means of slides:

The Navy Relief gave emergency aid to six widows of the S-4 victims. Three were given a lump sum and transportation home. Three were given a lump sum and a monthly gratuity for several months.

Six (6) mothers of victims of the S-4 have been extended emergency aid by the Navy Relief.

EMERGENCY AID IS THE CHIEF OBJECT OF THE NAVY RELIEF.

The recent disaster of the U.S.S. S-4 left 12 known dependents in need of emergency aid. All dependents in need of assistance were cared for by the NAVY RELIEF IMMEDIATELY. YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE NAVY RELIEF HELPED TO DO THIS.

3. Survey Reports of Missing Articles of Equipage. The attention of all officers and men concerned with the preparation and action on survey reports of missing articles of equipage, is invited to Article 1907, U.S. Navy Regulations. Frequent failures, on the part of officers ordering such surveys, to follow the provisions of this article has necessitated the return of these reports for compliance therewith.

4. Officers Selected for General Line Course. The following officers have been selected for the General Line Course starting 1 July 1928:

5. Enlisted Men Completing Course of Instruction Required to Return to Ships from which Received. The Bureau desires that all enlisted men sent from sea duty to take a course of instruction at any school, where, under current instructions, they are to be returned to ships from which received on completion of the course, be required to serve on sea duty on completion of course, for a period at least equal to the length of the course taken, irrespective of their eligibility for shore duty. This provision is necessary in order that vessels which send men to service schools may derive some benefit from the course of instruction which the men have received.
